

Bill Dardon

Affiliation:

Coldwell Banker Brokers of the Valley in the Sonoma Valley

Experience:

40 years of full time Experience that includes Real Estate Sales Manager / General Manger Owner of my own brokerage for 26 years. Commercial investments. Luxury home sales. Residential Home Sales. Vineyards. Land and Land and 1031 exchanges of investment property. Supervision of development projects in Sonoma County and Bay Area .

Education:

Attended College in San Francisco, California and received my Business Degree in Business Administration and Finance from Heald Business College, an Accredited College, and from Sonoma State majoring in Business and Computer Programming with machine Languages.

Professional Associations:

A member in good standing California Association of Realtors, National Association of Realtors, and Bay Area Real Estate Information Services, Inc. (Multiple Listing Service). California Multi-Million Dollar Club 1983. Coldwell Banker Awards of Distinction 2013-2017 International Sterling Award, 2018 International Diamond Award Membership - Top 10 Percentile Worldwide out of 92,000 agents .

Personal Information:

I love where I live and love what I Do! I work and live in the Valley. I'm an avid gardener. My hobbies are photography and working on my classic cars. Spending time with my family is very important to me, the three grandchildren keep me busy as well . "Home is where everyone's story begins, I am truly blessed!"